

TITLE 5
PUBLIC SAFETY

Subject	Chapter
Animal Control	1

CHAPTER 1
ANIMAL CONTROL¹

SECTION:

5-1-1: Keeping Livestock And Fowl

5-1-1: KEEPING LIVESTOCK AND FOWL²:

- A. Definition³: The words "livestock or fowl" as used in this section mean all birds or fowl of any description except house birds kept in cages within the house, such as canaries and like birds, and all animals except dogs or cats,
- B. Keeping Restricted; Special Permit:
1. It shall be unlawful to keep any fowl or animal within the city limits unless the city council, by special permit, allows the same, where the council feels the same can be properly caged or confined so as to not disturb the other citizens of the city.
 2. Any special permit can be cancelled by the council at any time upon ten (10) days' notice where the conditions, in the opinion of the council, warrant. (Ord. 24, 11-6-1973)
 3. Penalty: Any person found guilty of a violation of this section, or pleading guilty thereto, may be punished by a fine not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00). (Ord. 24, 11-6-1973; amd. 2007 Code)

1. See also subsection 4-1-4A5 of this code for nuisance and vicious dogs.
2. See also section 10-4A-4 of this code for zoning restrictions.
3. See also section 10-1-4 of this code for definition of "livestock".